

HONG KONG TRIP 5 Days 3 Nights (July 2024)

Date	Place/Activity	Note
Day 1 – July 19 (Fri.)
10.00 pm.	Leave the condo and go to Suvarnabhumi Airport.
11.00 pm.	Arrive at Suvarnabhumi Airport - check in	Ticket reservation number NE2406182108208452 Hong Kong Airlines Flight No. HX780 Bag weight 20 kg.
02.00 am.	Flight to Hong Kong	Departure for Hong Kong

Date	Place/Activity	Note
Day 2 – July 20 (Sat.)
05.55 a.m	Arrive at Hong Kong airport	Passed through immigration and stopped to buy Octopus cards for Ann's family (3 cards), top up the card with money.
07.30 a.m	To Best Western Hotel	(Agoda) Booking No. 1302683509 Leave your luggage at the hotel and check in (temporarily).
08.30 a.m	Breakfast – Dim Sum Here	Jordan MTR
	Xiqu	Chinese opera (opera) theater for taking pictures and it's a small walk.
	Harbour City	Shopping / Pop-mart / Harbor View for taking photos ... stop for dessert at Lady M Boutique. Shop OT215K, 2/F Ocean Terminal
12.30 p.m	Lunch – Kai Kee Noodle	Squid Ball Noodles – chewy noodles w/ squid balls that can only be eaten in Hong Kong. On the way to the shop, if you pass Cheung Hing Kee Shanghai, you will stop to try Shanghai style steamed buns which is similar to Xiang Long Bao (Stop by to buy souvenirs – Tart Addict next to building K11)
02.00 p.m	Best Western Hotel (Option : K11 Art/)	Return to the hotel to get the room, pack your bags, and take a rest (a little). Option: Walk to buy Egg Tart – Hastag B to taste.
04.00 p.m	Culture Center / Avenue of Star / Victoria Harbor / K11 Musea	Stop to take photos at the Culture Center and admire the view of Victoria Harbor and then go to Avenue of Star and sit in front of the bay to see show. After that, stop by for a walk at K11 Musea to wait for the time to watch the light and sound show.
08.00 p.m	Symphony of Lights @ Victoria Harbor	Show about 15 min.
09.30 p.m	Back to hotel for relax	Option: Go for a walk at Lang Ham Mongkok, a mall that is fun to walk around. There's a Popmart / outside the mall is Sneaker Street, a street with sports shoe stores. and shopping areas OR you can choose to walk through the Lady Market night market at Mong Kok Station.
Day 3 – July 21 (Sun)
8.00 a.m	Wake up / Take a bath

Date	Place/Activity	Note
9.00 a.m	Breakfast – Master Congee + Baked House Opened: 6.30 – 02.00 am. / Cameron Rd.	Smooth porridge with long Patongko sticks that are unique to Hong Kong. (In the morning, I'll stop by and stay on queue to buy Egg Tarts (Baked House) for you to try
10.00 a.m	Central Hong Kong / Tram Ding Ding	Take the MTR to Kennedy Town Station, then walk to Kennedy Town Terminus to take the Tram Ding Ding (14 stations) to visit the city of skyscrapers and tall buildings in the midst of the old city.
11.00 a.m	Tai Kwun – Centre for Heritage and Arts ‘ต่ายกวน’ (大館 Tai Kwun)	Old police station and prison transformed into a gathering place for art of local artists. After that, continue walking to Hollywood St. and take cool photos with graffiti art at various spots that art lovers shouldn't miss.
12.30 p.m	Lunch – Yat Lok	After having lunch will take the Kennedy Town tram line to have dessert at Auntie Sweet Dessert Restaurant (Mercy's request), get off at Foo Ming St. station.
03.00 p.m	The Peak Tram / The Peak	From Auntie Sweet Dessert, take bus No. 23 from Canal Road East to The Peak Tram (walk another 200 m) to take the Tram to the top of The Peak to see Hong Kong from its highest point of view. (Walking/Photographing/Shopping) until the sun goes down to see pictures of lights all over Hong Kong Island from the top of The Peak.
06.30 a.m	Dinner –
09.00 a.m	Back to hotel
Day 4 – July 22 (Mon.)
7.30 a.m	Wake up / Take a bath
9.00 a.m	Breakfast -
10.00 a.m	Nan Lian Garden / Chi Lin Monastery	Diamond Hill Station, Exit C2, come out and you will see Plaza Hollywood department store. Follow the path continuously and then crossing the road at a red light, will reach the entrance to Nan Lian Garden.
12.00 a.m	Lunch – Food Republic Hall @ Plaza Hollywood or Kwan Kee Noodle	Plaza Hollywood is next to Nan Lian Garden Park / or take the MTR to eat Kwan Kee Noodle,

Date	Place/Activity	Note
		noodles kneaded with traditional bamboo sticks.
01.00 p.m	Hung Hom Temple (Nui's request)	Take bus 6C\30X 5 stops to Kun Yam St.
02.30 p.m	West Kowloon Culture District :M+ Museum / Hong Kong Palace / West Kowloon Park Option : Sky 100 ticket price 178 HKD Business hours: Open every day 10:30 a.m.–8:30 p.m. Transportation: MTR to Sunny Bay Station.	West Kowloon Culture is a newly opened East Kowloon side, which includes the M+ Museum, an art gallery (ticket price 120 HKD) and also Hong Kong Palace, a museum that stores antiques from China. (Ticket fee: 60 HKD (Klook) with rotating exhibits every 6 months) West Kowloon Park is a seaside retreat on Victoria Harbor. It is a picnic spot for Hong Kong people. You can buy things to sit and eat and admire the view of the Central side from there at sunset. After sunset, we will see another angle of Hong Kong Island.
06.30 p.m	Four Seasons Clay Pot Rice / Hastag B	Take bus 74S (4 stops) to Wing Sing Lane and then continue walking about 200 M
09.00 p.m	Back to Hotel	Option: On the way to hotel, If want to take a walk at night, we can walk around The Temple Street Night Market next to Jordan Station or shop at Lung Fung, a store that sells everything.
Day 5 – July 23 (Tue)
7.30 a.m	Wake up / Take a bath
9.00 a.m	Yoshinoya	Hotpot – Hong Kong style
Free Time		Extra program, if need.
Noon	Lunch (Ki's Roast)	Not specified, we may try another restaurant or we may choose any restaurant, we love.
01.00 p.m	Hong Kong Science Museum	The museum is close to the hotel. Entrance fee is 20 HKD. If anyone isn't interested May go for a walk or go collect additional items/places by yourself free time.
03.00 p.m	Go to Airport	Take bus A21 to Terminal 1 of Hong Kong International Airport
06.55 p.m	Flight to Bangkok, Thailand	HX765
20.35 น.	Arrived Thailand

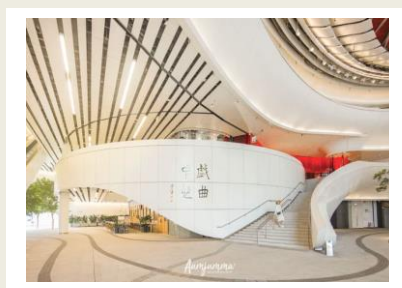

สถานที่ :

Xiqu / Chinese Opera House

New performing arts center in Hong Kong There are two opera houses that stage Cantonese opera and traditional Chinese opera. One of the landmarks in the Tsim Sha Tsui area just opened in January 2023. The design of the architectural structure was inspired by the reinterpretation of ancient Chinese lanterns. The front entrance of the building is designed to look like a stage curtain. Xiqu was founded to be dedicated to preserving the art and culture of Chinese opera or opera. This is a spectacular new performing arts center in Hong Kong. There are two opera houses that showcase Cantonese opera and traditional Chinese opera. Inside, there are many cool photo corners. Anyone who wants to find a new angle and hasn't tried it yet, I recommend coming here.

Opening hours: Open every day 10:00 a.m.–10:30 p.m.

Getting there: From Austin subway station, exit at Exit F. Walk for approximately 5 minutes.

Tai Kwun – Centre for Heritage and Arts

ต่ายก๊วน' (大館 Tai Kwun) A former police station and prison that has become a gathering place for Hong Kong's cool art scene. Tai Kwun is a project to transform a 170-year-old police station and prison into a center for Hong Kong's cultural heritage and contemporary arts. 'Tai Kwun' in Cantonese means 'big station' because it was originally a police station. of the Central area Office of the Judges and Victoria Prison It began in 1841 after the British occupied Hong Kong.

Tai Kwun is a project that has taken 11 years of conservation and restoration planning and has cost HK$3.8 billion to restore the historic site. From searching for bricks with the most similar color to the original to repairing stairs and various structures to be strong and safe To maintain the atmosphere of Hong Kong in the past from a tall solid wall building although it is in the heart of a business district filled with some of the world's most important organizations, it contains a number of interesting permanent and rotating exhibition spaces. Starting from the police dormitory building, walk through the exhibition on the history of the creation of Tai Kwun on the first floor to see the evolution of the Hong Kong police. It feels a little moved by the people in uniform before going up the stairs through the prison building connection. See a simulation of life in a prison cell before walking through the corridor area, which in the past was an area for prisoners to come and breathe outside their cells for 15 minutes a day. Not far away, there was an exhibition of prisoners' nutrition, showing what they ate.

The Peak Tram / The Peak Tower 425

The Peak Tram has been called Hong Kong's most beautiful destination. journey up It takes approximately 6 minutes to ascend from 33 m to 396 m above sea level. Along the 1,278 m long route, it is also an unforgettable scenic experience. You'll be able to see skyscrapers from different angles through the windows as The Peak Tram runs. It's perfect for taking videos and photos. Always have your camera ready. To capture the moment while defying gravity in this classic form of transport. With more than 130 years of tradition, The Peak Tram opened its doors in 1888 to serve the British Governors and residents of the Peak. The oldest in the world and everyone can use the service Therefore, it has become one of the most popular tourist attractions in Hong Kong.

The current Peak Tram is the 6th generation, with a retro green exterior that pays homage to the 3rd and 4th generation coaches from the 1940s to the 1980s. Larger panoramic windows This gives passengers a better view of the amazing skyline.

The Peak Tower and Sky Terrace 428 when you get off The Peak Tram, you'll find the Peak Tower, an anvil-shaped building made famous by Sky Terrace 428. Sky Terrace 428 stands 428 meters above the scenery city take everyone to the highest point of Hong Kong. If you feel like taking a break even dining here comes with a beautiful view of Victoria Harbor, you'll get dreamy views from the escalators that run along the large glass walls. They serve American and Italian food. There are also casual restaurants and cafes, and for those looking for an indoor venue. There are shops and entertainment venues set against the picturesque backdrop of the city. Suitable for all ages and all tastes! There is also the Madame Tussauds Museum. Hong Kong as well It features over 100 lifelike wax figures for an ultimate selfie experience.

Nan Lian Garden

Nan Lian Garden or Nan Lian Garden It is a garden located on Diamond Hill. (Diamond Hill) in Kowloon District, Hong Kong, has an area of over 23 rai. This garden is influenced and styled from the Tang Dynasty.

The interior of the garden is decorated in a Chinese and Japanese style, divided into several zones. The entire zone displays bonsai trees, decorative rocks, and a fish pond. Wooden buildings in the middle of water, tea shops, souvenir shops, cafes, water wheels, waterfalls, considered to be a park among the tall buildings of the city.

Pavilion of Absolute Perfection, a golden octagonal Chinese pavilion in the middle of a lotus pond. It's another highlight here. Because it is a popular spot for tourists to take photos. This pavilion symbolizes perfection in all aspects of life. There are red wooden bridges around the pavilion on both sides, north and south.

Chi Lin Nunnery

Chi Lin Nunnery or Chi Lin Temple .... it is a nunnery in the Mahayana sect, which built in 1934 and renovated in 1990 during the Tang Dynasty.

The highlight of this temple is that the buildings are made of wood and the main building of this temple. Built in the ancient style That is, not a single nail was used. which is a building technique of Chinese architecture inherited from the Tang Dynasty The outside shape of the temple is similar to that of Japanese temples. In front of the temple courtyard is a lotus pond. The interior is decorated with gold, wood and terracotta.

This temple currently has only nuns living there. It is also a place where the Buddha's relics are kept. Inside the temple is quite quiet. There are tall buildings in Hong Kong in the background.

Nan Lian Garden and Nun Temple are in the same area. There is a bridge across the road below. You can walk around both places. Traveling to Nan Lian Garden and Nun Temple, you can travel by MTR to Diamond Hill Station, exit C2, and come out to see Plaza Hollywood and follow the path continuously. Crossing the road at a red light You will reach the entrance to Nan Lian Garden. There is a clear sign

- GPS coordinates: <https://goo.gl/maps/fFLiG43YUjucw9Qa9>
- Opening hours: Nan Lian Garden 6:30 a.m. - 7:00 p.m. / Chi Lin Temple 9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Open every day.
- Entrance fee: Free

Hong Kong Palace Museum

The Hong Kong Palace Museum is located at the western end of the West Kowloon Cultural District. Hundreds of treasures from the Palace Museum are on display. Many items are displayed in Hong Kong for the first time while other items never before shown to the public in a museum. It will present Hong Kong's perspective and global vision by adopting a new curatorial approach. and will regularly present special exhibitions featuring Chinese art and culture, as well as works of art and treasures from other parts of the world

The Hong Kong Palace Museum has a total of nine galleries. Each room has exhibitions based on different themes. In the opening exhibition, five of the nine galleries will present exhibitions that explore a variety of topics. Related to the Palace Museum including architecture art collection (including drawings calligraphy, ceramics and art objects) cultural exchanges between China and Foreign countries in the Ming and Qing dynasties Life and culture in the royal court as well as the role of museums in conveying intangible cultural heritage. Two other galleries will feature collections of Chinese art from Hong Kong. along with multimedia installations from Hong Kong artists inspired by palace culture. The museum regularly hosts special exhibitions on Chinese art and culture. as well as art and treasures from other parts of the world.